

MEDIA (PRODUCTION)

Level 3 Cambridge Technical Diploma Equivalent to two A Levels

Course Summary

Media (Production) is designed for people who enjoy learning in a practical, work-related way. The course provides a high quality, industry recognised qualification that acknowledges the skills, settings, job roles, principles and values involved in the Media Industry. At the beginning of your studies you will need to select one of two pathways, which you will continue throughout the two-year course: Video and Moving Image Production or Digital Media Design.

EXCELLENT
dedicated facilities and technology

Pathways and Topics

VIDEO AND MOVING IMAGE PRODUCTION

- > TV, Film and Music Video Production and Cinematography
- > VFX, SFX, Scriptwriting and Advertising

DIGITAL MEDIA DESIGN

- > Advertising, Journalism and Photography
- > Graphics, Print Production and Animation

Why choose these courses?

- > State-of-the-art facilities and technology
- > Field trips
- > Visits from prestigious academic and industry experts
- > Equivalent to two A Levels

Where might it lead?

Video and Moving Image Production is suited for those who wish to work in the Film and TV Industries. Digital Media Design is suited for those who wish to work in the Creative Design Industries.

Assessment

These courses have a mixture of:

- > 30% exam
- > 70% coursework

“ I love Media as it allows me to show off my creativity and create something new that I can be proud of.

Filip Borzeszkowski
Studied: Media (Production) and Popular Music & Jazz Studies

Entry requirements

- > GCSEs to include a minimum Grade 4 in English
- > Merit in a Vocational Media course if taken

Visit barton-peveril.ac.uk/courses/media-production for more information