College Finances and Facilities

In 2022-23 the College will have a turnover of approximately £21 million. The College's financial position has been judged outstanding for the past three years by the government body overseeing it, the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA).

Our estate has been continuously enlarged and improved over the past 17 years and resembles a small university campus rather than a school (£33 million has been spent on it). The most significant developments include:

2022-23	The Business School, also housing the Humanities Department (currently under construction)
2021	The remodelled Rose Theatre, re-opened by author and former student, David Nicholls
2017	The remodelled Student Centre and restaurant
2015	The new Science Centre, opened by Professor Joanna Haigh, Co-Director of the Grantham Institute at Imperial College London, and the extension opened in 2019 by Dr Jessica Spake, a former student
2014	Nobel Two: teaching blocks for Media Studies
2013	Nobel One: teaching block for Maths and English, opened by Nobel Prize winner, Professor Tim Hunt
2011	The Glyn Library opened by Lady Fagan, former Lord Lieutenant of Hampshire
2005	The Rose Building for Sport and Performing Arts, opened by The Right Honourable Bill Ramell
